RENEWED PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.137

Dear Sir:

In response to the Decision On Petition dated May 16, 2005, by which the Patent Office dismissed Petitioners first petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unavoidably under 37 CFR 1.137(a), dated January 18, 2005, (hereinafter the "First Petition"), reconsideration is hereby respectfully requested.

Remarks in Support of this Renewed Petition begin on page 2 of this paper with a copy of the First Petition (w/related documents) of January 18, 2005, provided via Appendix hereto.

REMARKS IN SUPPORT OF RENEWED PETITION

Reconsideration of the First Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent

Abandoned Unavoidably Under 37 CFR 1.137(a) in view of the following remarks is respectfully requested.

The Decision on Petition, in support of the dismissal of Petitioners' First Petition states:

The showing of record is inadequate to establish unavoidable delay within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 133 and 37 CFR 1.137(a). Specifically, an application is 'unavoidably' abandoned only where petitioner, or counsel for petitioner, takes all action necessary for a proper response to the outstanding Office action, but through the intervention of unforeseen circumstances, such as failure of mail, telegraph, facsimile, or the negligence of otherwise reliable employees, the response is not timely received in the Office.¹

In response, Petitioners' respectfully note that among the exemplary "unforeseen circumstances" listed in the above quote, the negligence of otherwise reliable employees is clearly identified as a justification for a claim of unavoidable circumstance. It follows then that it is clearly sufficient/adequate to establish an unavoidable delay by demonstrating that an unexpected circumstance, which circumstance arose from or through the unforeseen fault or imperfection of "worthy and reliable employees", resulted in a delayed payment of a required Issue Fee and ultimately an unwanted abandonment of the present Application.² Petitioners' respectfully submit, contrary to that which is suggested by the Office, that the showing via the First Petition, was/is adequate to demonstrate that it was an unforeseeable/unexpected circumstance, and thus "unavoidable", for trained, worthy and reliable employees, in the course of practicing a well established business practice (i.e., authorizing payment of Fees due to the Patent Office via deposit account)³, to neglect to provide the appropriate deposit account number.

The Office, in the Decision on Petition, suggests that the "unforeseen circumstance" (i.e., the fault or imperfection of worthy and reliable employees) was not "unavoidable" due to the availability of "a general authorization to charge any necessary fees."⁴ In other words, the Office contends that a "reasonably prudent person" would not have relied on well-established business practices by which worthy and reliable employees provide requisite payment information, including an appropriate deposit account number, when authorizing a payment due to the Patent Office, but instead would have provided the Patent Office with a general authorization to charge all necessary fees.

² See Id. footnote 4 (citing In re Mattullah, 38 App. D.C. 497, 514-15 (1912)(quoting Ex Parte Pratt, 1887 Dec. Comm'r Pat. 31, 32-33 (1887)); see also Winkler v. Ladd, 221 F. Supp. 550, 552, 138 USPQ 666, 167-68 (D.D.C. 1963), aff'd, 143 USPQ 172 (D.C.Cir. 1963); Ex parte Henrich, 1913 Dec. Comm'r Pat. 139, 141 (1913)).

³ The file history (i.e., the postcard receipt, the Issue Fee Transmittal of 4-29-02, the Amendment under 37 CFR 1.312 of 4-29-02, and the transmittal letter of 2-6-01) clearly evidence and/or establish a business practice of authorizing payments due to the Patent Office via deposit account.

⁴ See Decision on Petition, dated May 16, 2005, p. 3.

Petitioners respectfully disagree with the foregoing contention as to agree with such contention is to agree that the “reasonably prudent person standard” requires that one conform to what the Patent Office determines is reasonably prudent (e.g., provide the Patent Office with a general authorization to charge any necessary fees), and suggests that to do anything else is unreasonable under the noted standard. Petitioners respectfully submit that the “reasonably prudent person standard” should not be so narrowly construed as to, in effect, define “unavoidable” so that one’s reliance on worthy and reliable employees usually employed in an important business (e.g., the payment of an Issue Fee) is not considered an exercise of due care. Petitioners respectfully note that such a narrow interpretation is, in fact, contrary to that which is suggested via the references cited in the Decision on Petition.⁵

In sum, Petitioners respectfully request, based at least on the foregoing, reconsideration of their Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a) filed January 18, 2005, by which Petitioners (i) provided the requisite Issue Fee of $1580.00 (filed previously on April 29, 2002), (ii) provided the requisite Petition Fee of $500.00, (iii) provided authorization to charge required fees to Deposit Account No. 14-1270, and, as elaborated on by way of this paper, (iv) provided the requisite showing of an unavoidable delay (i.e., (1) demonstrated the exercise of due care under the reasonably prudent person standard in relying on worthy and reliable employees in the performance of their responsibilities according to well established business practices, and (2) demonstrated that unexpectedly, or through the imperfection of such worthy and reliable employees, a failure occurred

⁵ See supra, note 2.

(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

It is respectfully submitted that through an unexpected clerical error the entire delay in paying the Issue Fee for the herein- identified patent application from the due date for such payment until the filing of the present grantable petition was unavoidable.

By way of background, according to the Patent and Trademark Office (the "Patent Office"), a Notice of Allowance was mailed on 01-31-02. In response, an After Allowance Amendment under Rule 312, an Assignment (w/cover sheet), an Issue Fee Transmittal authorizing payment of the Issue Fee via Deposit Account, and a return request postcard receipt was filed 04-29-02 (Exhibit A). A Response indicating that the Rule 312 Amendment was entered was mailed on 05/01/02 (Exhibit B). A Notice indicating abandonment of the application for failing to timely pay the required Issue Fee was mailed on 05-31-02 (Exhibit C). Upon notice of the unexpected abandonment, Applicants timely filed a first request/petition Letter requesting reconsideration of such abandonment on 06-20-02 (Exhibit D). A first Petition Decision dismissing Applicants request/petition was mailed on 04-04-03 (Exhibit E). Upon receipt of the first Petition Decision, Applicants filed a second request/petition Letter again requesting reconsideration in view of further evidence was filed on 04-16-03 (Exhibit F). A second Petition Decision dismissing Applicants second request/petition was issued on 10-19-04 (Exhibit G), however, such decision was not received by Applicants until 01-05-05, after Applicants inquired with the Patent Office as to the status of the present application on 12-08-04 and again on 01-04-05 when Applicants were informed that notwithstanding the Patent Office having Applicants current mailing address, the Petition Decision of 10-19-04 was sent to an OLD correspondence address (Exhibit H).

As demonstrated at least by (i) the enclosed Issue Fee Transmittal (Exhibit A), which was timely filed on 04-29-02, and (ii) the copy of the postcard receipt (Exhibit A), Applicants clearly intended to authorize the payment of the Issue Fee via a Deposit Account. However, as the Deposit Account Number was unexpectedly omitted, such Issue Fee payment was, in view of the Patent Office, unauthorized (see Decision on Petition dated 04-04-03 (Exhibit E)). Thus, it is respectfully submitted that the omission of the Deposit Account Number was the cause in fact of the delay resulting in the abandonment of the present application.

Also, as further demonstrated by (i) the enclosed Issue Fee Transmittal, and more particularly (ii) the Assignment cover sheet, which authorizes charging the payment of fees to Deposit Account Number 14-1270, Applicants routinely utilize a Deposit Account in paying Patent Office fees.

Furthermore, Applicants respectfully submit, based at least on the foregoing discussion, that those involved in the preparing/filing of the Issue Fee Transmittal are/were sufficiently trained with regard to such preparation/filing that reliance thereupon with respect to them properly providing the Deposit Account Number is/was clearly an exercise in due care.

Accordingly, Applicants respectfully request revival of the present application.

Sir:

LETTER

In response to the Notice Of Abandonment mailed May 31, 2002, Applicants respectfully request reconsideration in that there was no abandonment in fact.

In particular, Applicants sent the Issue Fee Transmittal form PTOL-85B authorizing payment of the Issue Fee from Applicants' deposit account with a Certificate of Mailing dated April 30, 2002 (see copy enclosed). This Issue Fee Transmittal form was duly received by the U.S.P.T.O. on May 7, 2002, as shown by the enclosed copy of our Postcard Receipt. Since the Issue Fee authorization was sent prior to the expiration of the 3-month period from the Notice of Allowance, dated January 31, 2002 the issue fee was timely paid.

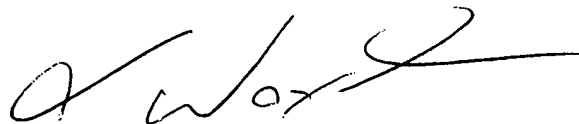

PC JUN 19 2002

Further enclosed herewith please find copies of the PTO 1595 Recordation Form Cover Sheet and Assignment form also submitted with the Issue Fee Transmittal on April 30, 2002.

In view of the above, Applicants contend that there was no abandonment in fact and respectfully request that this application be passed to issue.

Respectfully submitted,

DECISION ON PETITION

This is a decision on the Letter, received in the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) on June 26, 2002, which is being treated as a Petition To Withdraw Holding Of Abandonment in the above-identified application.

The petition is DISMISSED.

The application was held abandoned for failure to timely pay the issue fee as required in the NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE AND FEE(S) DUE, mailed January 31, 2002, which set a three (3) month statutory period for reply. A Notice of Abandonment was mailed May 31, 2002.

Petitioner states that the Applicants sent in the Issue Fee Transmittal form PTOL-85B authorizing payment of the Issue Fee from Applicant's deposit account with a Certificate of Mailing date April 30, 2002. Further, that the Issue Fee Transmittal form was received by the USPTO on May 7, 2002, as shown by the enclosed copy of the postcard receipt. In support of this assertion, Petitioner has submitted a copy of the Issue Fee Transmittal. The copy of the postcard receipt did not accompany the petition.

In order for a petition to be granted, the evidence must be sufficient according to one of the following standards:

- MPEP 503 (postcard receipt as prima facie evidence)
- Certificate of Mailing under 37 CFR 1.8(b)
- "Express Mail" Mailing under 37 CFR 1.10

DOCKETED	DATE	INITIAL
COMPUTER	PC APR 03 2003
SECRETARY	4/11/03	B
ATTORNEY	4/14/03	AW

03 APR - 7 AM 8:23

37 CFR 1.8(b) requires that the petitioner provides that (1) the United States Patent and Trademark Office must be promptly informed of the previous timely mailing, (2) a copy of the previously mailed correspondence with certificate of mailing thereon must be submitted, and (3) include a statement which attests to the previous timely mailing

Consequently, 37 CFR 1.8(b) is not applicable to the circumstances of the petitioner's mailing via certificate of mailing, in that the petitioner did not include an attesting statement.

MPEP 503 is not applicable, since a copy of the postcard receipt was never received.

Also, the Petitioners copy of the Issue Fee Transmittal reveals that the Deposit Account Number was omitted.

The rules as amended provided a safely mechanism where it is clear that an applicant intended to pay the issue fee. In this regard, 37 CFR 1.311(b)(1) and (b)(2) provides that, where an applicant intends to pay the issue fee by submission of either an incorrect fee or a completed Office-provided issue fee transmittal form (where no issue fee has been submitted), a general authorization to pay fees or a specific authorization to pay the issue, submitted prior to the mailing of a notice of allowance, will be allowed to act as payment of the correct fee.

Unfortunately, the application file does not reveal that an authorization, which can be construed as a general authorization to charge any required fees or specifically the issue fee, was ever provided.

In view of the petitioner non-compliance with 37 CFR 1.8(b), MPEP 503 and a general authorization to charge the issue fee was not provided, the holding of abandonment cannot be withdrawn.

Petitioner should note the new rules pertaining to authorizations for issue fee payment effective November 7, 2000. Note 65 FR 57024, September 20, 2000, and 37 CFR 1.311¹.

The petitioner should consider petitioning the Commissioner as follows:

File a petition for Revival of Abandoned Application or Lapsed Patent under CFR § 1.137 (a) or (b).

■ Under 37 CFR 1.137(a), a petition for the revival of an unavoidably abandoned application must include the following:

- (1) The reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed;
- (2) The petition fee set forth in § 1.17(l);
- (3) A showing to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to this paragraph was unavoidable; and
- (4) Any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in § 1.20(d) required pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

■ Under 37 CFR 1.137(b), a petition for the revival of an unintentionally abandoned application must be:

- (1) The reply required to the outstanding Office action or notice, unless previously filed;
- (2) The petition fee as set forth in § 1.17(m);
- (3) A statement that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to this paragraph was unintentional. The Commissioner may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional;
- (4) Any terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth in § 1.20(d) required pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section.

¹ § 1.311 Notice of Allowance

(b) An authorization to charge the issue fee or other post-allowance fees set forth in § 1.18 to a deposit account may be filed in an individual application only after mailing of the notice of allowance. The submission of either of the following after the mailing of a notice of allowance will operate as a request to charge the correct issue fee to any deposit account identified in a previously filed authorization to charge fee:

- (1) An incorrect issue fee; or
- (2) A completed Office-provided issue fee transmittal form (where no issue fee has been submitted).

In re Application of :
Mark T. Johnson, et al. : DECISION ON PETITION
Application No. 09/778,131 :
Filed: February 6, 2001 :
Attorney Docket No. PHN-16,952A :

This is a decision on the Letter, received in the United States Patent and Trademark Office on April 21, 2003, which request reconsideration of the Decision On Petition mailed April 3, 2003.

The Request is DISMISSED.

The Decision on Petition, mailed April 3, 2003, dismissed the applicant's Petition to Withdraw Holding Of Abandonment (submitted as Letter), received on June 26, 2002, in view of the petitioner's non-compliance with 37 CFR 1.8(b), MPEP 503 and no general authorization to charge the issue fee, as required under 37 CFR 1.311(b).

Petitioner again states that the Applicants sent in the Issue Fee Transmittal form PTOL-85B authorizing payment of the Issue Fee from Applicant's deposit account with a Certificate of Mailing date April 30, 2002. Further, that the Issue Fee Transmittal form was received by the USPTO on May 7, 2002, as shown by the enclosed copy of the postcard receipt.

Petitioner has submitted a copy of the return post card receipt, which acknowledges receipt of the Issue Fee on May 7, 2002, as evidenced by the "Office Date" stamp thereon. Also submitted is a copy of the PTO 1595 Recordation Form Cover Sheet and Assignment. Petitioner believes that this letter satisfies the requirements under 37 CFR 1.10.

Application No. 09/778,131

The holding of abandonment will not be withdrawn due to the following:

- The post card acknowledge receipt of the Issue Fee by the USPTO, however, it doesn't support the timeliness of the Fee(s) Transmittal and payment thereof
- 37 CFR 1.10 Express Mail is not applicable, since there is no evidence supporting the use of this procedure
- Omission of the Deposit Account Number on the Fee(s) Transmittal and no general authorization to charge such fees. See 37 CFR 1.311(b)
- The Recordation Form doesn't provided a general authorization to charge such fees within the meaning of 37 CFR 1.311(b)

Petitioner should review the amended rules pertaining to general authorization to pay fees. See 65 FR 54647 September 8, 2000, which states:

As an additional aid to applicants, the rule as proposed has been further amended to include §§ 1.311(b)(1) and (b)(2) that can act as safety mechanisms. Where it is clear that an applicant actually intends to pay the issue fee such as by submitting an incorrect issue fee amount, or completing the issue fee transmittal form provided by the Office with the notice of allowance, a general authorization to pay fee or a specific authorization to pay the issue fee, submitted prior to the mailing of the notice of allowance, will be allowed to act a payment of the correct issue fee.

Petitioner should consider filing a Petition for Revival Of Abandoned Application under 37 CFR 1.137.

Further correspondence or inquires with respect to filing a Petition For Revival Under 37 CFR 1.137 should be directed to the Office of Petitions at 703-305-9282 or 9283 or as follows:
